

15, Upper Phillimore Gardens, Kensington. W.

22 June 77.

My dear Mr Garrison,

136 I want if possible to see you and your wife under my roof, and to give my wife the opportunity of shaking hands with you. Are your evening free for Sunday?

Our table are early dinner at 2 o'clock - we are here all the afternoon - sitting out in the garden if it is fine - we have a meat tea at 7. and we are going to the Jard Miroirs afterwards to meet you. We should be delighted to have you here any time from now onwards and to take you on to the Jard Miroirs if that suited you. Yrs sincerely & affectionately

Wm. Thackeray
